
3 Signals That Command Attraction

Charisma & Swagger · Physique · Status

A free guide for men who are building their world first.

01

CHARISMA & SWAGGER

How you carry yourself, speak, and move through the world.

- Move slower. Rushed energy reads as anxious. Controlled movement reads as power.
- Keep your posture open. Shoulders back, chin neutral, eyes steady.
- Talk less, mean more. Silence is a tool. Let your words land.
- Hold eye contact one beat longer than comfortable. Not aggressive — calm.
- Stop reacting to every stimulus. Be the man who observes before responding.

— "Your aura is the energy you bring before you say a word."

02

PHYSIQUE

The visual signal of discipline, health, and masculine structure.

- Build your shoulders, arms, and traps. These create the V-shape that signals strength.
- Get lean. Abs are visible only when body fat is low — it shows you eat with purpose.
- Train with consistency, not emotion. The routine itself is the attractive trait.
- Dress around the frame. Fit matters more than price.
- Your body is a billboard. It advertises your discipline before you speak.

— "A strong body is proof that you can commit to something hard and win."

03

STATUS

From The Status Game: where you sit in the social hierarchy.

- Status is reputation, not flexing. It is what people say about you when you leave.
- Build competence in a domain. Expertise creates natural deference.
- Surround yourself with people who respect you. Your circle signals your value.
- Have a mission bigger than women. Purpose is the loudest status signal of all.
- Stop trying to impress. Impressiveness is the byproduct of a real life.

— "Status is not what you show. It is the life you have built."

Build the Signal. Attract the Result.
